RULES for BBQ Pit Master Competition:

1. The Winner Area Chamber of Commerce will supply 6 racks of pork ribs and one 8-10lb beef brisket to each participating team between 5 & 6pm Friday, August 4 or after 6am the morning of Saturday, August 5. The teams will need to set up their cooking area between 6 & 10am on Saturday, August 5. There is no limit to how many people constitute a team, with a minimum of one person. All meat must be cooked on Winner Main Street and cooking shall commence no earlier than 6am on Saturday, August 5.
2. Prior to cooking, meat must be maintained at 40 degrees or less.
3. Each contestant must submit at least 6 portions of meat in an approved container. Brisket may be submitted chopped, pulled, sliced, or diced as the cook sees fit, as long as there is enough for 6 judges. Ribs shall be turned in bone-in. Judging for ribs shall be at 6pm. Judging for brisket shall be at 6:30pm.
4. A cooks' meeting shall be held at 10am on Saturday, August 5 in front of the Chamber Office.
5. Contestants must provide all needed equipment and supplies.
6. Garnish is optional. If used, it is limited to chopped, sliced, shredded or whole leaves of fresh green lettuce, curly parsley, flat leaf parsley, kale and/or cilantro. Endive, red tipped lettuce, lettuce cores and other vegetation are prohibited.
7. Sauce is optional. If used, it shall be applied directly to the meat and not be pooled or puddled in the container. No side sauce containers will be permitted in the turn-in container.
8. Contestants will be allowed to use electric, gas, charcoal or other cooking devices normally used for a cook-off. No open pits or holes permitted. Fires shall not be built on the ground.
9. It is the responsibility of the contestants to see that the team's assigned cooking space is kept clean and policed following the contest. Grease containers must be used and maintained throughout the cook-off. Spilling of any grease or ash may result in disqualification. Any cooking space left in disarray or with loose trash may disqualify a team from future cook-offs.
10. Contestants must have fire suppression at the ready.
11. Contestants must have hand sanitizer and/or water and bleach. It is preferred that team members preparing and handling the meat wear gloves; however, it is not mandatory.
12. NO GLASS BEVERAGE BOTTLES ALLOWED. Contestants found to be in possession of glass bottles may be disqualified.
13. By signing the entry form, you will be bound by the rules governing the BBQ Pit Row competition.
14. There will be no refund of entry fees for any reason, except at the election of the Winner Area Chamber of Commerce.

PRIZES FOR EACH BBQ COMPETITION CATEGORY:

100% payback + $250 per category * Top 5 places paid out per category

The Winner Area Chamber of Commerce will also be providing #10 cans of beans for all teams to cook. There will be NO competition with the beans. This will provide additional food tasting for the public and all teams are encouraged to jazz the beans up anyway you would like. Be creative.

All teams are welcome to provide their own specialty food throughout the day. If you do sell food, you are responsible for abiding by the South Dakota Department of Revenue and Regulation laws.

Cause for disqualification from any and all competitions:

Excessive use of alcoholic beverages or public intoxication with a disturbance.

Use of illegal controlled substance.

Foul, abusive or unacceptable language or any language causing a disturbance.

Fighting and or disorderly conduct.
